    1. PE questions/discussions
      - ~Erika (a parent) asked how they differ as programs. Prices & programs info were given to the parent.
      - ~ Ms Cohen said that a lot of free play is happening this year as feedback from her students. Ms Cohen wants to go out and look for herself.
      - ~Ms. DaCorsi – Spoke with PEAK and asked them what type of programs

- and timing they do with each group. They are there for 50 minutes (Patty asked DaCorsi about length of time)
  - ~Patty says the students don't get to choose what they want to play. The coaches choose for the kids which game they get to play and they don't change games once assigned.
  - ~Patty says that the PE coaches have everything under control but its hard for it to be interactive because they are some disruptive students so the coaches have to be able to control and manage the lesson.
  - ~Seliene will speak with PEAK to see if they can change their style and get more exact price from the other PE Program and speak about the 2 coaches not being sufficient for our group.
  - ~Jen needs an exact amount from the PE coach for budgeting purposes.
  - ~Heather wants it to be more organized sports being taught and not just free play or duck duck goose.
  - ~DaCorsi – Agrees it should be more of an organized sports type PE session and not free play.

V. New Business

Fit-A-Thon – After spring break it starts.

~Denise: Explained the Fit-A-Thon how it works in comparison with the Read A Thon.

~Ms DaCorsi doesn't want to be dunked in something or dye her hair. Otherwise, she would be happy to be a prize for highest money raised by a student – Mummify her and Principle of the Day.

~Jennifer explained the fit a thon in detail – how the minutes work, and how many is raised and how the sign-up works.

~Ms Cohen asked if a flyer would be given out because teachers said that not all parents are on the website or get emails. Flyers work better to
